Nursing Faculty Position, Part-Time

The Union College School of nursing is seeking a pool of qualified candidates for part-time (adjunct) teaching in our RN to BSN track. These appointments are on a course by course basis. Salary is commensurate with education, experience and discipline. These needs change from semester to semester but can include courses such as community health nursing, leadership and management, health policy and finance, pathophysiology, health assessment, evidence-based practice and research, transcultural nursing, and professional issues.

Minimum qualifications for teaching in the School of Nursing include:

- Licensed as a Registered Nurse in Kentucky, a Multistate Compact State, or eligible for licensure in Kentucky.

- Hold a master’s degree within the discipline of nursing. Doctoral degree preferred.

- Document a minimum of two (2) years full time experience as a nurse within the immediate past five (5) years and shall maintain expertise appropriate to teaching responsibilities.

- Teaching experience in a baccalaureate nursing program preferred.

- Documented preparation in educational activities in the area of teaching and learning principles for adult education, including curriculum development and implementation as required by the Kentucky Board of Nursing.

Interested candidates should submit via email a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, and contact information for five professional references to:
