The following questions are designed to help you practice the ideas and resources introduced in the Welcome to the Library presentation and the six Literati tutorials. Please refer to the presentation and the tutorials as needed to answer the following questions. Be sure to turn this worksheet in by the above due date.

1. What is the Union College library’s full name?

2. When conducting academic research, name two methods for focusing your search and finding more relevant results.

3. Using uSearch, the online library catalog, find a book of your choice and write the proper citation below. You may use either APA or MLA style.

   Citation: APA or MLA (circle the one you used)

4. Also using uSearch, look up the DVD entitled The Day the Earth Stood Still and write the call number for it below.
5. Where can you find the library Stacks? What is located there?

6. What resource would you use to browse an alphabetical listing of every online library database?

7. Where on the library’s first floor would you go for help with research questions and reference materials?

8. What three things are components of each of the Group Study Rooms located on the library’s second floor?

9. In your own words, briefly explain why you would use either Google or Literati for academic research.
10. What are two methods for locating peer-reviewed articles?

11. List two ways to contact library staff for assistance.

12. Where would you go in the library to find a copy of the most recent issue of Sports Illustrated?

13. For most academic research papers, is it better to rely upon peer reviewed articles or popular magazines as sources of information? Briefly explain your answer.

14. Peer review guarantees that the publication will be without errors.

   True  or  False  (circle one)

15. How many computers are available on the 2nd floor of the library?
16. Where would you go to check-in/check-out library materials?

17. When referring to APA style, what does APA stand for?

18. When referring to MLA style, what does MLA stand for?

19. The testimony of a survivor of the 1941 attack on Pearl Harbor would be considered which type of source? (Circle your answer.)
   Primary OR Secondary

20. Did you find the worksheet and tutorials helpful? YES or NO (circle one). Please briefly explain your answer.